

Basic Supervision I

Who Should Attend:

- ◆ Any new first- or second-level supervisor.
- ◆ The experienced supervisor who has not had extensive training in supervisory skills.
- ◆ The supervisor who needs a refresher on the basic skills of supervisory management.
- ◆ Supervisors in industrial and manufacturing environments.

Topics covered will include:

- ◆ The role of the supervisor.
- ◆ Analyzing, developing and implementing solutions to workplace people problems.
- ◆ Discipline — when it works and when it doesn't.
- ◆ The legal environment of the workplace — how to stay out of trouble.

Materials:

The course workbook enables the participant to take back the information presented, as well as supplementary information designed to increase understanding and knowledge of the topics covered. Also, participants will take back a plan to improve their workplace performance.

Seminar Leader:

Dr. Carol Read, Bellwether Connections, Starkville

Certificate in Supervision:

MMA offers a "Certificate in Supervision" to those who complete the Basic Supervision I, II and III courses, as have more than 700 others who have attended this seminar. This certificate acknowledges that the individual is a professional with a solid grounding in many of the techniques used by the most successful supervisors to manage the workplace. This certification is key to achieving a professional committed first- and second-level management.

Workforce Training That Gives Manufacturers a Break!

This seminar has been approved by the Mississippi State Tax Commission and the State Board for Community and Junior Colleges for income tax credit under the Skills Training Tax Credit Program.
